

Setting Behavioral Expectations and Working with Challenging Behaviors

Wednesday December 6, 2017 6-7:30 pm

- Testing limits and pushing boundaries is a necessary part of growing up and developing inner discipline
- Join us as we discuss practical tips for supporting your child in developing the social and emotional skills for making good behavioral choices no matter what stage of development they are in—toddlers or tweens.
- We will talk about communication, sleeping, eating, friendships, appropriate chore responsibilities, and more, and offer lots of examples and ideas.
